The stainless steel herb scissors from Jenaluca, which is currently available on Amazon.com, is now ranked among the top ten products in its class. The kitchen shear is now ranked at number seven in the Kitchen and Dining: Mincers and Choppers category, which includes a number of food, herb and vegetable cutters.

With over 950 reviews, the herb scissors has maintained a high rating of 4.7 out of 5 stars to maintain its position among the top ten. It is rated highly for its sharpness, usefulness in quickly preparing herbs, and its versatility. A number of shoppers have attested to using it for slicing meats, as well as art and craft projects.

?I've actually used them not only on herbs, but also thinly sliced meats (cooked pork and chicken) and noodles when preparing foods for my 1.5 year old,? said Teresa, a verified Amazon reviewer.

Jenaluca?s Herb Scissors come with a number of features and benefits which validate their high ranking ahead of numerous products in its class. To begin with, its 5-blade design allows users to achieve the equivalent of 10 knife chops with just two snips. Its sharp blades also prevent tearing or bruising of herbs, allowing them to maintain flavor and texture.

The kitchen shear also eliminates the need for cutting boards and allows both home cooks and trained chefs to achieve professional results. Additionally, each pair of herb scissors comes with a cleaning comb, which doubles as a protective cover and the product is easy to get clean by rinsing the blades with water and placing in a dishwasher.

?These scissors were very easy to clean and the guard does a great job of keeping them closed while they're in a drawer,? said Carie Alexsy, another verified Amazon reviewer.

The high rank achieved by Jenaluca?s stainless steel herb scissors comes as more people replace their chopping knives with kitchen shears for preparing herbs and other items. A 100% money-back guarantee comes with each purchase of the product.
