July 27, 2016

July 27, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Melbourne, Australia based accessory company, Junior Watches, has been featured this month on the trendy Australian website, Fashion Journal. The article, which was posted on July 22, 2016 outlines 8 places to buy a new watch, with Junior Watches at #2. This is a huge boon to the new company, which has been coming into its own over the past few months.

Throughout the article, Fashion Journal references some of the main selling features of this classic Australian accessory, including Junior Watches' overly large 48mm diameter face, and the very limited edition runs which the company creates for each style. Aside from nailing the balance between traditional and contemporary elements, it is pointed out that Junior Watches also knows it should be quality over quantity. Accordingly, each style is limited in run, with watches individually numbered on the back of the face, which is bigger than the usual face.

Junior Watches launched their products only 4 months ago and have already claimed more than 10,000 Facebook likes and 8500 loyal Instagram followers. The company provides humor with each image posted, suggesting that certain styles of watches are expressing themselves, enjoying a cup of tea, or sipping on a cocktail. Photos of watches and other interesting company images can be found at <http://www.instagram.com/juniorwatches>. The company's slogan, "Damn good watches" is enough to turn heads all on its own, but with the addition of the photo tags, the business has seen a boom, and it doesn't look like it will be slowing down anytime soon.

The article, which can be seen through the company's Facebook page, also touched on the fact that Junior Watches provides a full customer service guarantee with a 100% refund on any purchase that isn't satisfactory. Currently, shoppers can also enjoy free shipping to a variety of countries including the U.S., U.K., Australia, Hong Kong, and more.
