December 22, 2016

December 22, 2016 -
Grand Forks, N.D. ? Express Employment Professionals, a leading employment agency in Grand Forks, ND, is more than excited to enjoy each and every moment of giving this holiday season with the friends and families of the Grand Forks community.

Falling into the Christmas spirit is inevitable for people in the Grand Forks area, the company says. The people in the community are always so generous during this time, so in return Express wants to provide the same sense of generosity by helping each job-seeking individual land the perfect career.

Grand Forks Express Staffing Consultant Joan Bengs said, ?As the Christmas season approaches and people spend more time with their families, we work harder than ever to make sure our employees are able to have a nice holiday with their loved ones.?

The Express team labors yearly to assist at least one million individuals in finding jobs that pay bills and allow for enjoyable lifestyles. The temp agency in Grand Forks, ND recognizes the urgent need to get extra cash in the pockets of the citizens of Grand Forks this Christmas, so it is willing to take immense measures to ensure the holiday is a success for everyone.

?We urge everyone in need of assistance around Christmas time to drop by the office and check out some the temp positions available,? Bengs said. ?It could really make the difference between an ordinary and extraordinary Christmas.?
