Mojo Global, a company based in Scottsdale, AZ, is proud to announce that they have once again been positively highlighted in the world of lead generation. In fact, Mojo Global's award winning lead generation software is now so popular that it is used by businesses the world over. The company has received further positive endorsements from prominent entrepreneurs.

Cory Michael Sanchez, co-founder of Mojo Global and chief architect of its award-winning lead generation software, says: "Together with Ira Rosen, the other co-founder of Mojo Global, we have worked for years to create a lead generation software package that effectively cracks the LinkedIn code. We are so happy to see that it has benefited so many different entrepreneurs, as we genuinely just want to give everybody the opportunity to make their business a success."

Both Ira Rosen and Cory Michael Sanchez have made it very far in the business world, and they are now one of the most respected online entrepreneurs. Their advice weighs heavily, with people trusting their opinion in helping them achieve their own business success. The fact that they take this responsibility seriously can be seen in Cory Michael Sanchez' Facebook endorsements, for instance. "It took me a while to get into the habit of using the Mojo software every day," says Mike R. "I have added about 900 new connections in the last couple of months and they are all connections from my target audience. I have noticed that the more targeted I get the more business I get. As I continue to improve and tweak my campaigns the number of leads I get on a weekly basis continues to rise. I was not sure about Mojo at first but now I'm a big fan."

Mike R.'s opinion is far from unique. In fact, even Bob Watkins endorses Cory Michael Sanchez, Mojo Global. He has released a YouTube video to highlight the benefits he has experienced when using the lead generation software. Together with Sanchez, he has constructed a testimonial highlight video, which shows some of the main things that people have stated about the company, and how their businesses have improved as a result.
