These experiences have truly shaped the strong woman she has become, but it is sure to transform readers and other audiences. Take one read through The Book of Rose, and watch the personal transformational journey begin.

?The Book of Rose is visceral and profound, inspiring and moving, and should be considered a compulsory read for anyone who feels as though there is some hindrance preventing his or her success. Without getting into specific details, if this book's author can become a happy, purpose-driven, relentlessly compassionate person, anyone can.? ? Roderick M.

?A very timely piece of work. This book pull anyone in and help them reflect on their lives. The book is beautifully written and highly inspirational, especially for women. Its first person point of view really helps the author become more personal and mentally, and even emotionally intimate with the reader.? ? Randelle Jamieson
