Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon Names Wesley Reeder as President

March 27, 2020

March 27, 2020 -
Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon is pleased to announce that H. Wesley (?Wes?) Reeder has been named President of the firm.

Wes graduated with honors from Florida Coastal School of Law in 1999. He then served as Assistant States Attorney until he joined Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon in 2001.

In addition to his legal accomplishments, Wes is a retired Naval Reserve Officer with more than 24 years of aviation industry related service to the federal government and the U.S. Military. While on active duty in the U.S. Navy, Wes had the honor of serving as a crewman with the Blue Angels.

Wes practices primarily in the areas of construction, real estate, and business litigation. He is a Florida Supreme Court Certified Circuit Civil Mediator and, in that role, mediates cases involving construction and business disputes, condemnation proceedings, and real estate matters. Wes and his wife Carolyn are active volunteers, striving to contribute to the betterment of the Pensacola community through their service to various organizations.
