Akers & Cleator Law Group, P.L.L.C., a law firm in Williamsburg, VA, has teamed up with WY Radio and 92.3 The Tide, to broadcast The Unbillable Hour, an hour-long radio programs where they will field questions from the station?s listeners. The station has made a request form available online to submit questions that will be passed along to the team at Akers & Cleator. Interested clients can find out more about the law firm by heading over to its website at https://www.aclawva.com/.

When asked about the initiative, a spokesperson for the law firm says, ?We are delighted to announce this partnership with WYDaily and 92.3 The Tide. This helps us keep our finger on the pulse of the community and listen to the problems that everyday citizens are facing. It also gives us a chance to help out real people who are in dire need of legal advice but lack the resources to seek it out themselves. We also want to introduce the community to our talented team of litigators. We get a chance to introduce the wonderful people of southeast Virginia to our law firm and the excellent quality of service we provide while at the same time imparting valuable legal advice to those who need it.?

Akers & Cleator Law Group was established by Thomas Cleator, Esq. and William Akers, Esq. in February of 2019. The law firm?s practice areas include criminal litigation, civil litigation, family law, landlord/tenant law, debt collection, and personal injury law. The law firm says that its mission is to empower and enlighten its clients with legal knowledge and to always strive to bring forth the best possible resolution for their legal matter. The law firm is representing clients in Williamsburg-James City County, York County, Newport News, New Kent, and all surrounding areas 1-hour outside of Williamsburg, VA.

When asked about the law firm?s core values, the spokesperson says, ?We aim to provide aggressive litigation with a personal touch. We understand that each case is different and hence we have to give every case the attention that it deserves. We take the time to understand the client?s story and background. We leverage our knowledge of the legal system to analyze the dispute and explain the law to our clients so that they are armed with the knowledge that they need when they enter the judicial process. If you are in need of legal advice, make sure to visit us in Williamsburg, VA and we will make sure that you get the best legal representation possible.?

Thomas ?Tom? Cleator, Esq. and William ?Peyton? Akers, Esq. met over drinks at a golf course bar and soon a budding friendship blossomed that brought them together. They understood that their litigation methods, legal experience, and the most importantly the prisms through which they viewed the law complemented one another. They decided to bite the bullet and start the Akers & Cleator Law Group (also known as AC Law) that quickly elevated its reputation in the Williamsburg area due to its successes.

William Akers, Esq. earned his Bachelor of Arts from the Virginia Commonwealth University and his Juris Doctor from Regent University School of Law. He landed a spot on the list of the top 40 under 40 criminal defense attorneys for The National Trial Lawyers. Thomas Cleator, Esq. graduated from Regent University School of Law in May 2003 and has been licensed to practice law In Virginia since November 2003. After law school, he spent twelve years at the Virginia State Crime Commission as Staff/Senior Staff Attorney.

The company can be contacted in a number of ways. The spokesperson for the company says, ?We can be reached at the phone number (757) 707-8838. We also have a contact form on the website to take messages from prospective clients. Make sure to follow us on Facebook for all the latest updates on our service. Our office is located at 291 McLaws Cir STE 1, Williamsburg, VA 23185.?
