

Harbor City Capital Management Appoints New Managing Director

July 08, 2015

July 08, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Rockledge, FL, May 5, 2015. Harbor City Capital Management is pleased to announce the appointment of Mary Stone as the Managing Director for Harbor Institute, one of its subsidiary companies. She will also be directing and managing Hush VIP events.

Stone has 15 years of experience in business management and marketing and 10 years of sales experience, with nine years of direct work in offline space. She has worked in a variety of niche markets and has facilitated success with several successful businesses, including Ruthless Marketing, Social Media Marketing University (SMMU), and StomperNet.

She said, "As managing director of Harbor Institute, it allows me to bring my passion for business into the financial arena where it will have the largest impact on individuals and business owners. For me, it's the perfect marriage of business success."

"I'm always looking for rising stars within our organization who are ready to tackle bigger roles and greater responsibility," says Harbor City Group CEO JP Maroney. "Mary Stone's past performance in our group gave proof that she was up to the task when we began searching for a Managing Director to lead Harbor Institute."
