San Francisco, California ? When the prom day started approaching, 3 families in San Francisco city started wondering how they could get their kids to the prom in style. Luckily, a neighbor knew that San Francisco Party Bus Company was always willing to give back to the community and decided to connect the families with the company for a party bus for proms San Francisco.

?When I received the call,? said Meshack who had been tasked with handling the travel plans, ?I wasn?t even sure how to respond. The lady on the other end of the line told me that a friend had given San Francisco Party Bus Company my number and said that we needed to get our kids to the prom next week. She proceeded to tell me that the company had set aside a teenage party bus San Francisco for us. When I asked about the payments, she told me that the entire service was all taken care of by the company ? we didn?t have to pay even a dime.?

?Every once in a while,? said the San Francisco Party Bus CompanyCEO, ?we offer free services to give back to the amazing community in the city of San Francisco. Meshack and the other two families were one of our beneficiaries this week. However, in the future, we intend to offer more free rides as a way to thank our customers.?

Meshack noted that the big party bus San Francisco arrived as promised and had everything the kids would need to have fun while heading to the prom. ?In the minibar,? said Meshack, ?they included non-alcoholic drinks. The vehicle also had a music system and connections that allowed the kids to play their favorite music. The driver promised to take good care of the kids. He waited for the kids until the prom was over and then brought them back. I cannot thank San Francisco Party Bus Company enough.?
