January 05, 2022 -
January 2022: KRDO TV publishes a new report that reveals how power dialers can be important for businesses. The article, published on KRDO TV?s website, was produced by the company?s business and marketing experts. The report was released to aid companies that rely on calls in their sales and marketing process by providing reliable information on power dialers.

One of the most effective ways to close sales is by calling leads. Leads generated by cold calling have an 18% efficiency rate, compared to appointments, which have a 2% efficiency rate, and face-to-face meetings, which have a 1% efficiency rate. In addition, about half of business decision-makers prefer to be contacted by phone, including senior executives, directors, and managers. The publication analyzed the use of power dialers in this context. The article revealed the biggest benefits a company can enjoy from using power dialers in their sales process.

According to KRDO TV, their experts produced the report after performing detailed market research. The analysis discussed how these tools work and the main advantages they can bring to the business. The report found power dialers to provide businesses significant sales advantages. Readers can find the full report by
