Woodinville, WA ? As many employers have seen, ensuring that employees feel recognized and appreciated for their hard work is a crucial component to both happy employees and positive work environments. Norwest Trophy and Awards, a provider of crystal awards in Woodinville, is recommending that business owners celebrate Employee Appreciation Day in 2022 by investing in custom awards for their employees.

Employee Appreciation Day is celebrated on the first Friday in March, which happens to fall on March 5th this year. The holiday provides employers with an opportunity to reiterate to their employees that they are both valued and seen as individuals. Additionally, employee recognition can improve both morale and profits according to an article in Apollo Technical that states that the ?Harvard Business Publication says that the key to happy customers is happy employees. As a result, employee recognition can improve customer satisfaction. Customer satisfaction is the backbone of a business and taking care of your employees can help achieve that.?

The fact that awards can be customized in numerous combinations makes ordering unique awards for employees a simple task, according to Northwest Trophy and Awards. They believe that the fact that the size, shape, and material of awards can be adjusted to fit both an employers? budget as well as an employees? personality makes choosing custom awards for Employee Appreciation Day an ideal option.

Northwest Trophy and Awards was purchased by the current owners? grandfather in the late 1950s. His business philosophy of ?hard work and giving customers the best of your product, time, and talent? has lived on, and today, they still do business based on those principles. The Northwest Trophy and Awards team strives to provide top-quality products at the best prices, including custom awards, business promotional items, medals, personalized drinkware, and more.
