September 28, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pensacola, Fla. ? Martelli Enterprise, a quilt shop in Pensacola, FL, is embracing National Sewing Month with their Children?s Charity Drive. This philanthropic event is sure to spread joy to children who deserve all the happiness this world has to offer. If helping out with this project is of interest, here?s how to get involved.

Martelli Enterprise, a carrier of sewing tables in Pensacola FL, is asking patrons to join in creating roll-up crayon cases. These roll-ups are fun and easy to make. All that is needed is two pieces of fabric (14 x 21 inches and 8 x 21 inches), one piece of ribbon (approximately 20 inches long), and matching thread. A full set of instructions at martellinotions.com/september-charity/.

Once one has completed the project, it can be sent to 5450 North W Street, Pensacola, FL 32505. Martelli Enterprise, a supplier of cutting tables in Pensacola, FL, will provide all of the crayons to fill the roll-ups.

The roll-ups will then be sent to one of two charities. The roll-ups willl be donated to either the Favor House of North West Florida, a local charity that helps mothers and children escape domestic abuse and violence, or Ronald McDonald house, a national charity that helps provide essential support to parents while their children are in the hospital for an extended stay.

If the roll-ups are submitted by October 8th, all participants will be sent a free 2-pack of blades as a thank you.

Martelli Enterprises thanks all that offered assistance and drive to put smiles on the faces of children in need.
