Provider of Staffing Solutions in Longview Excited for Employment Improvements in Cowlitz County

October 30, 2017

October 30, 2017 -
Longview, Wash. ? Express Employment Professionals, a leading provider of staffing solutions in Longview, WA, is proud to announce that Cowlitz County employment is still at a record high.

According to The Daily News, the Cowlitz County unemployment rate is down a full two points lower from August 2016 to August 2017 (7.6 percent to 5.6 percent). Nonfarm employment itself remained at a record number, accounting for 40,000 jobs in the area.

Express Longview Franchise Owner Lisa Straughan said, ?We are proud to see that our efforts and the efforts of the community are showing vividly in the decline of our unemployment rate.?

Even better news has arisen for the staffer of part time jobs in Longview, WA. Only over 2,500 county residents were without jobs and looking for employment, 800 fewer that last year. Other sectors including trade, transportation, and construction increased dramatically in jobs filled as well. It?s safe to say that things are definitely looking up in Cowlitz County.

?It?s our goal to continue to provide solutions that will help get people jobs and ultimately make Cowlitz County unemployment a thing of the past,? Straughan said.
