October 15, 2024 -
Anaheim, California - The Lighthouse Treatment Center, a premier drug and alcohol addiction treatment center in Anaheim, California, proudly participated in the 8th Annual Canyon Club Golf Classic held on September 21, 2024, at the scenic Tijeras Creek Golf Club in Rancho Santa Margarita, CA. This much-anticipated event aimed to raise funds for The Canyon Club, a non-profit venue dedicated to supporting the recovery and rehabilitation of alcoholics and their families.

Featuring an engaging day of golf, a sumptuous dinner, a silent auction, and a thrilling helicopter golf ball drop, the tournament brought together community members and sponsors committed to making a difference.

Peter Davidson, President of Lighthouse Treatment Center, expressed the significance of the event for the organization, stating, "Participating in the Canyon Club Golf Tournament was an invaluable opportunity for Lighthouse. We are deeply committed to supporting causes that align with our mission of fostering recovery and healing. This event not only provided us with a platform to contribute to the community but also allowed us to strengthen bonds with like-minded individuals and organizations. We believe in the transformative power of community support, and events like this underscore the importance of collective efforts in creating lasting change."

The Canyon Club Golf Classic was more than just an ordinary golf tournament. Participants enjoyed a day filled with friendly competition and unity, starting with registration and a putting contest, followed by a shotgun start for the tournament. As the sun set, golf balls were dropped from a helicopter, adding an exciting twist to the fundraising efforts. The evening concluded with a delightful dinner and silent auction, where guests had the chance to bid on exclusive items, all in support of a noble cause.

Aside from key Lighthouse Treatment Center staff, members of the Lighthouse Alumni Program were also invited to participate in the event. This allowed former clients of the treatment center to come together, enjoy a day of golf, and reflect on their personal journeys towards recovery. The sense of camaraderie and support among the alumni truly exemplified the impact that Lighthouse has had on countless lives.

Danny Ellis, a proud alumnus of Lighthouse Treatment Center, shared his thoughts on the event, "I was incredibly grateful to have had the opportunity to participate in the Canyon Club Fundraiser Golf Tournament. It was a beautiful day filled with camaraderie and fun for our whole team, and we couldn?t be prouder to support such an impactful cause. Not only did we enjoy ourselves, but we were also able to contribute to raising essential funds for an organization that saves lives and changes the course for so many in need. Thank you to everyone at Lighthouse for allowing us to be a part of this meaningful event!"

Beyond their involvement in the tournament, Lighthouse Treatment Center is actively engaged in various community initiatives in Anaheim, California aimed at promoting recovery and wellness. The center hosts regular workshops and support groups that provide individuals with the tools they need to maintain sobriety and lead fulfilling lives. Additionally, Lighthouse collaborates with local schools and organizations to deliver educational programs that raise awareness about the dangers of substance abuse and the importance of mental health.

Lighthouse is also spearheading innovative projects that focus on holistic recovery approaches. By incorporating art therapy, mindfulness practices, and outdoor activities, the center offers a comprehensive treatment plan that addresses the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of individuals. These initiatives reflect Lighthouse Treatment Center's unwavering commitment to nurturing a supportive environment where individuals can thrive and reclaim their lives.
