The Port Lincoln firm offers more than twenty years of experience in the business of importing quality knives. The firm sells knives made by Mora of Sweden and Frosts Knives and Sharpening Steels, also of Sweden.

Port Lincoln SA: Allknives and Val & Barry Drewer are pleased to announce that they have been a leading importer of quality knives and knife sharpeners for more than two decades. The firm carries Mora of Sweden and Frosts of Sweden products, known as one of the top brand name knives on the market, manufacturing since 1891. The company sells to end users, as well as to wholesalers and retailers. The choice of a knife is dependent upon the needs of the user and the use which will be made of it.

According to a spokesperson for the company, "You can buy knives online from <http://allknives.online/>. The e-commerce business has a wide variety of knives for sale which is of very high quality, such as hunting knives, tactical knives, fishing knives, kitchen knives. We also specialize in knife sharpeners. Our outdoor and Bushcraft knives are the best available. Customers also can choose farming, butchers, fishing, chefs and cooks products. We provide quality knives, sharpening steels and electric knife sharpening machines by Nirey."

Allknives are the importers and distributors for Swedish-made Mora knives. The Swedish firm has been producing quality knives since the 17th century. Mora of Sweden products is made of heat-treated steel which results in one of the sharpest and longest lasting edges on the market. The online store carries knives for recreational or professional use.

Customers looking for knives for fishing, skinning, butchers, survival, scuba diving and woodcarving can find a suitable product. The online outlet also includes knives for camping, hunting, boning and chefs' uses. Irrespective of the type of knife which the customer has been looking for, he or she is likely to find it in the extensive inventory. There are curved or straight blades, quality handles to suit the preferences of the customer, as well as knives with unique features and different steel.
