Pensacola, Fla. -- The job agency in Pensacola that helps unemployed rates go down also works to influence their community in other ways. With the help of a lot of different nonprofit organizations, Express Employment Professionals has volunteered to better their community for around 35 years now. In the past, Express would set aside one day of normal work to solely serve and give to the community. This day has always been known as Brand It Blue Day.

In the years previous, Express managed to provide more than 600,000 meals to starving individuals on Brand It Blue; however, they do not specifically just work with food banks and hungry homeless people. A lot of the different offices of Express have gotten involved in many other ways to improve their community. Some help at the animal shelters. Others help events that create funds to improve children's education. Each Express Employment Professionals office finds their passion and how they can help out their community.

As the years go by, Brand It Blue has evolved from being just an annual day event. Brand It Blue is not meant for good public relations. The Brand It Blue Initiative is a never-ending service offered by Express Employment Professionals. They do it for the memories they can make, the changes they can start, and the lives they can bring hope to. The provider of employment in Pensacola works to bring that hope back to their area. They want to make sure everyone and anyone can bring hope home.

For those who want to get involved spreading hope and making a difference, stop by at the Pensacola Express office at 7100 Plantation Rd Ste 4, Pensacola, FL 32504. For those who would rather call, the number is (850) 494-1776 or check them out on www.ExpressPensacola.com.
