November 28, 2016

November 28, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Greensleeves Florist offers a large selection of Christmas and holiday-themed floral arrangements for gifts, décor and even Christmas weddings. Orders placed now will prevent a last-minute rush in holiday preparations.

Fairfax VA: Greensleeves Florist is pleased to display their many options of floral arrangements which are suitable for the Christmas and holiday season. Customers are encouraged to plan ahead and order themed arrangements for Fairfax flower delivery in time for the holidays. Flowers make great gifts every day of the year, but during the months of winter, they are particularly appealing. A floral arrangement for the holiday meals or parties makes decorating easy. Flowers also make great gifts.

The florist in Fairfax VA can deliver arrangements locally or around the globe. The local delivery service can brighten the day of a hospital patient or assisted living center resident. Greensleeves Florist delivers to a large number of residential and medical facilities throughout the Fairfax area. Use of the delivery service makes it easy to take care of a gift list. Customers can browse and buy online or by visiting the nearby location in Fairfax.

A spokesperson for the florist shop explains, "Choosing holiday decorations from our extensive selection is easy and convenient. We enjoy displaying the colors associated with the holiday season, as well as all the sparkle and shine that decorations add to the event or the décor. In addition to floral arrangements, you may check out our other gift ideas.

The poinsettia is traditionally associated with Christmas and is available for delivery. Some of the arrangements featured through the Teleflora service include "Thomas Kinkade's Jolly Santa Bouquet", "Let It Snow" and "Send a Hug With Wings Of Winter". Customized arrangements can be created by choosing the type of flower or greenery and adding extras, such as decorative candles, ribbons or balloons. The courteous and friendly professional staff at the shop will be happy to help with ideas for arrangements to brighten the spirits of the recipient, as well as preparing the home décor to reflect the holiday season.
