The Law Offices of Jerry J. Trevino has been rated number one for personal injury legal representation in Corpus Christi, Texas, by clients. The law firm provides legal representation for a number of personal injury cases including work injuries, trucking accidents, and wrongful death. They have been rated as the top attorney in the industry, serving Corpus Christi, McAllen, and Edinburg clients.

The firm states that among their stellar representation, clients have also informed them that their prices are what makes them the top pick in the area. "Pricing is very competitive and payment plans are available. Jerry Trevino keeps pricing competitive to make sure he can help as many people as he can. His compassion and dedication to helping people is his #1 priority," says a spokesperson for the firm.

The personal injury lawyer Corpus Christi residents can trust says that while most personal injury cases can be solved by settlement, there are times when trials are necessary. Jerry Trevino has been slated as an attorney who fights for the underdog, whether it is someone who has been injured by a large corporation or someone accused of a crime.

The Corpus Christi truck accident lawyer states that clients are the firm's most important asset, a statement that they believe has also helped to leverage them as the number one legal firm in the region. A spokesperson for the firm states that they handle each client as an individual, not as a case, and take necessary steps to ensure that a satisfactory outcome for each case is received. Clients in and around the area trust in the services offered by the Corpus Christi personal injury attorney, stating that he helps those who cannot help themselves and that he and his entire firm truly care about their clients.

Known as the man behind the legend, Attorney Jerry J. Trevino holds a Master's degree in Business Administration, and he was admitted to the Texas Bar in 1992.
