December 15, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -
Traverse City, Michigan based Livnfresh is pleased to announce that they recently added new comfortable and stylish sweaters and sweatpants to their home pride apparel line, just in time for Christmas.

?We are very excited to announce that we have expanded our inventory and added a lot of new styles for the upcoming holiday season. Share the love this Christmas by giving your family and friends the gift of style and comfort through our especially designed Michigan proud apparel. Act fast and place your orders now, for our products are currently in high demand and are selling out quickly,? says Cari Samalik, founder and owner of Livnfresh.

Livnfresh is an innovative design and printing company made up of a husband and wife tandem, Dave and Cari Samalik. They have founded the business in Gaylord, Michigan and have been in the creative industry for more than 20 years. Their love for their home state Michigan has inspired them to create their successful home pride apparel line that boasts all the amazing things that Michigan is known of.

As the temperature continues to drop in the state, Livnfresh also continues to offer high quality statement sweaters and sweatpants that will keep friends and families warm and stylish this winter season. Their growing physical and online store inventory of Livnfresh Michigan apparel offer a huge selection of products to people of all age and sizes. The popularity of their products amassed over 102,000 following on Facebook and are known for being sold out in as fast as 1-2 weeks.

Those who are interested in buying their goods and apparel must take note that their normal shipping duration usually takes 4-5 days depending on the buyer?s location. Meanwhile, for priority shipping, it usually takes up to 2-3 days maximum. Furthermore, during holiday periods and peak seasons, parcels may take a little bit longer to arrive and waiting time can range from as much as 5-7 days.

?If you are also looking for cool and trendy holiday gift ideas, browse through our accessories webpage and discover a wide range of products such as bags, blankets, decals, gift cards, headware, jewelry, koozies and tumblers to name a few. We also have a wide variety of clothing styles like dresses, long sleeves, pants, sweaters, tank tops and T-shirts,? Samalik added.

Livnfresh also expanded the designs of their homegrown clothing line to the neighboring cities and states of Colorado, Coast to Coast, Wisconsin, Texas, California and Florida. ?Enjoy stylish, quality and comfortable clothing and wear your home city or state with pride. We also walk our talk as we focus on helping the local economy by inspiring our fellow residents to support small and medium enterprises that promote locally made products,? she said.

Their huge base of customers, either Michigan homegrown or not, commend the company?s effort in bringing affordable and quality apparel in Traverse City and the surrounding areas. Their positive recommendations on Google, Facebook and even on Etsy prove the company?s passion in providing customers with excellent products and services.

Tim Croll, on Google review said, ?While I am not a native of Michigan, I love this state. Their (Livnfresh) designs are so unique and the shirts are higher quality that anything else that I could find in the area. These (clothing) I will definitely wear on a daily basis.?

?Awesome people. Lots of fun, very friendly and their unique selection of Northern Michigan gear is outstanding. They do stuff for many different states and the designs are as unique as the mind behind it. Very cute little place and be sure to check it out,? says Ben Blissett, another satisfied Livnfresh customer.

The company?s physical store is conveniently located in 121 E Front St, Traverse City, MI 49684. Meanwhile, for those who love online shopping, they also have their online store at www.livnfresh.com. They have a wide range and array of accessories and clothing products while offering a very convenient and flexible return/exchange program.
