Vincent Lizard from Agence Marketing Quebec said: "Web marketing is one of the most affordable ways to increase revenue and generate new customers. Advertising in magazines and newspapers has become expensive while web marketing provides better results and is much more affordable."

As well as providing a free website analysis service, Vincent is also available to offer a free consultation service, helping startups and small businesses to understand how to achieve results with their websites.

With web marketing producing positive results and helping startups and large businesses expand, it has been reported that the amount spent on web marketing has nearly doubled since 2015. In 2017, more than $42 billion was spent on promoting services and products online compared to $20 billion in 2015. According to Vincent, this is down to web marketing producing longer and better lasting results than magazine and newspaper advertising. Learn more here: https://www.pressadvantage.com/organization/agence-marketing-quebec.
