1 Commercial Space is a new real estate website that provides listings of office space rentals in Singapore. The website is designed to help key personnel of SMEs, MNCs, and other organizations which are tasked with finding the right office space for rent in Singapore for their businesses.

Dalen Chee, founder and owner of 1 Commercial Space says, "Businesses often find it difficult to locate the perfect office space. My goal is to help simplify the process of locating and securing the office space, no matter what industry your business falls under."

Chee states that the website also recently released a Tenants Rental Guide that is designed to simplify the process and make office rental much easier for organizations. Chee is a commercial broker with ERA and has been working in real estate for more than five years. He says that his first three years were spent in the residential market, but he has focused solely on commercial space rentals since that time.

"You have to have experience in all segments of real estate in order to be able to help everyone," Chee states. "My aim is to be your one-stop real estate shop. I will work with you to ensure that your space, location, and budgeting needs are met."

Chee says that he created the new website for business owners and key personnel who may have found it difficult to find adequate office space. He says that he has had the privilege of working with a number of business and organizations over the years, and that he realizes how frustrating and stressful it was to find the right business space.

Chee cites lack of information as the main reason that businesses find it difficult to locate adequate office space. He states that with his years of experience, he has the knowledge of the industry and the compassion for helping his clients to assist with their business space needs.
