

LilUnicorn Releases Revolutionary 100% Mold Free Bathtub Toy Holder

July 28, 2015

July 28, 2015 -
LilUnicorn, an Edmonton, Alberta company, has recently released a revolutionary new bathtub toy organizer on Amazon. The toy holder is mold free, meaning that moms no longer have to worry about harmful mold growing on bathtub toys.

Unlike other bathtub toy storage containers, this one does not promote mold, so it's safer for children. There is no danger of kids being exposed to a respiratory infection that is caused by mold. Mold can grow in damp places and many bathtub toys sit on the sides of the tub, where mildew and mold can grow freely. LilUnicorn's bathtub toy storage allows for toys to dry completely, eliminating the possibility of mold and thus keeping toys much safer for children.

The bathtub toy holder is also easy to clean, meaning a mess-free bath time for moms as well as kids. It was recently voted the number one premium bath toy organizer on Amazon.

The two preinstalled suction cups hold the organizer securely on the wall, making it an easy to install and easy to remove bag when needed. Since toys dry quickly, there is no cleanup required. The mesh bag helps to eliminate worries of mold and slime, and customers are finding it one of the best purchases they have made.

"Finally, no more stepping on Legos or toys when stepping into the shower," says one Amazon customer. Another remarked that she had "purchased a more expensive bag from Babies-R-Us and mold started growing in it. With this one, I don't have to worry about that at all."

Suzy Pierce, spokesperson for LilUnicorn recently stated that, "We feel confident that our customers are going to love this organizer. Not only does it help to keep bathtub messes down, it helps to protect our children, which is what all parents strive to do."

By eliminating mold on bath toys, the mesh bath toy holder effectively lowers the risk of many infections that can be caused when children touch or put moldy toys in their mouths. LilUnicorn offers a full satisfaction, money back guarantee for all of their bathtub toy organizer purchases.

As a way to express their gratitude, LilUnicorn is running a special customer appreciation sale for their premium baby bathtoy organizer. To take advantage of this sale, go to http://www.amazon.com/LilUnicorns-Organizer-Extremely-Powerful-Suction/dp/B00XHESF4Y.
