Cheyenne, Wyoming based Baubelle has reported that their Be Happy Bracelet, as well as others in their charm bracelet lineup, have become very popular on the Amazon marketplace. The company states that the bracelets have become a top seller on the marketplace, with many customers declaring that they are purchasing the bracelets as birthday gifts.

The bracelets are available exclusively on the Amazon marketplace. Each one contains a message of inspiration for women. The company's previously released "I Love You To The Moon And Back" collection was also a hit on the marketplace and the company states that the new line is possibly even more popular.

Sarah Evren, a spokesperson for the jewelry company says, "Our bracelets are a wonderful birthday present. They are designed with quality and offer so many possibilities with their stacking ability. It is true that women want to be empowered. We want inspiration in our lives and this is what inspired this collection. We want to empower women and offer them something that gives them hope and faith on a daily basis. Our bracelets are powerful and our Be bracelet has the words thankful, brave, happy, kind, true, compassionate, and strong."

Evren says that the bracelets are both stackable and expandable, each provided with an 18 karat gold plating and available in rose gold and white gold. They are hypoallergenic according to the company, so they are safe for all skin types, another reason Evren believes that they have become such a popular gift idea for birthdays, Mother's Day, Christmas and other special occasions.

Evren states that the bracelets come packaged in an attractive box, which is also perfect for gift giving. They are designed not to rust nor tarnish and leave no residue on the skin, and the company states that they offer a money back guarantee for up to one full year so that any gift recipient who is not completely satisfied with her bracelet can return it for a refund. Amazon sales have increased significantly over the past few months and Baubelle says that they expect those numbers to rise even more as Mother's Day approaches.

The bracelets can be seen on the company's official website and purchased through Amazon.com.
