

San Gabriel Dentist Receives Another Five Star Review

July 24, 2019

July 24, 2019 -
InStyle Dental, a San Gabriel, California dentist office, has reported that they have received yet another five star review from a patient. The dental practice says that they are always happy to hear from their patients and that they strive to provide a comfortable and relaxing atmosphere to put patients at ease as they receive their needed dental work.

Lucy, a recent patient of the practice, took to the internet to leave a stellar review, saying, ?Went for my first appointment, they took a lot of pictures and x-rays of my teeth, took time to talk with me, addressed my concerns, and made time to do the fillings they found I needed during the exam. Each team member cordially introduced themselves. The office is clean, modern, comfortable, and easy to find."

Carolina Rodriguez, a representative for the dental office says, ?We are always thrilled to hear that our patients had a positive experience. We do strive to provide them with a comfortable stay and we are happy to hear that Lucy was so pleased with our office and our staff.?

These types of reviews are certainly not new for InStyle Dental. In fact, the office has received numerous similar reviews over just the past few months alone, all praising the team for their professionalism and friendliness, as well as the overall office atmosphere and the actual dental work that has been done. Their latest review can be seen at https://sites.google.com/site/dentistsangabrielca/.

The office celebrated their seventh anniversary this year in San Gabriel and continue to assist patients with a number of dental concerns. In addition to general dentistry services, the office also provides pediatric dentistry that provides services to children as young as just one year old. The staff states that they are dedicated to providing their patients with dental education that will help them to maintain their healthy and beautiful smiles.

?We always help our patients to fully understand any procedure that they are having and ensure that they know how to take better care of their teeth and gums,? says Rodriguez. ?We want those smiles to last for a lifetime.?

Rodriguez says that because so many consumers have a fear of visiting the dentist, the office takes care to provide the most comfortable and relaxing atmosphere in order to put those patients at ease when they visit. Based on the numerous reviews that claim that the office provides just that, it seems as though they have met their goals.

Patients simply cannot stop raving about the atmosphere in the office and the helpfulness of everyone on staff. Lucy, in her most recent review, claims that they addressed all of her dental concerns, taking time to explain things to her, and other patients agree. Those who are interested in reading about other reviews or about the office?s news related items in general can do so on their news page at Press Advantage by visiting https://www.pressadvantage.com/i_organization/instyle-dental.

The office claims that they will continue to provide a relaxing place for patients to come and get their needed dental work done.
