Foxbrim, a health and nutrition company based in Lake Alfred, FL, is very proud to announce that their Vitamin C serum has maintained a five star rating on Amazon as reviews mount. Having received over 800 positive reviews, it seems that their serum has hit the world by storm. To celebrate this, they are now offering it to their customers with a 73% discount if purchased from Amazon.

"We have always believed in the superior quality of our product and we are so pleased to see that our customers believe in it, too", says Troy Johnston from Foxbrim. "As a way to say thank you, and to give more people the opportunity to try the serum, we are now offering it at a significant discount for a limited time only."

The serum itself has a unique formula that really makes it stand out from the crowd. It is 72% organic, as Foxbrim is also committed to protecting the environment and the planet as a whole. The formulation is very delicate and contains the high form of bio-available, active vitamin C. Due to the fact that it is so delicate and almost entirely organic, it is suitable for all skin types. Essentially, it is an anti-aging serum containing vitamin C, hyaluronic acid and vitamin E. Together, these ingredients help to repair damage and to restore overall beauty. The reviews received on this product show just how well it works.

"First things first, I am a licensed Esthetician and Makeup Artist, so I have an in depth knowledge of skincare, and how different product ingredients work on the skin", says Brittany Nicole Bobier. "Foxbrim's Advanced Formula Vitamin C Serum has a wonderful list of ingredients. This is an amazing product. I noticed a difference in the texture of my skin immediately after applying the serum to my face. It leaves your skin feeling smooth and hydrated without leaving any kind of residue or sticky feeling. Foxbrim's Advanced Formula Vitamin C Serum is great for any skin type".

The vitamin C serum, which is also available on their website, is truly hitting the world by storm. Everyone who uses it reports that it is so easy to apply and how quick the results are noticeable. It leaves the skin feeling soft and smooth, as well as revitalizing it and restoring damage.

"You will love how your skin feels after just a few days of using and then will really see some good results after using for 30 days, so don't give up", says mmbear. "It took time to get those fine lines and wrinkles, so it will take time to ease them away."
