

Local Dentist Receives New 5-Star Review

September 16, 2019

September 16, 2019 -
InStyle Dental, based in San Gabriel, California, recently received yet another 5-Star Review. The patient who wrote the review spoke highly of the emphasis that the center places on the well-being of their patients. InStyle Dental has been providing the San Gabriel community with top-rated dental services for many years, earning a reputation among the locals for their attentiveness and personal treatment.

Cesar R., a long-time patient of the dental office, states, "I recommend this dentistry! The staff are nice and professional. Their customer service is exceptional. I have been visiting them for over five years and they have never let me down, always treating me like I am part of their family. I moved 70 miles away, and I still keep coming to them for my routine dental work. They are that good."

The company affirms that they appreciate every piece of feedback that their patients give them, and value their kind words They add that providing a welcoming environment for their patients has always been their foremost priority. Carolina Rodriguez, a representative of InStyle Dental, states, "Receiving such kind words from our patients encourages us to keep doing our best every day. We are very happy to receive such outstanding support from the community, as it means that we have had a positive impact on their lives. Our goal has always been to offer the best service to the community, and seeing this kind of responses from them means we have done a good job."

InStyle Dental is a dental office that makes every effort to ensure their patients feel comfortable during their stay at the facility. Given that patients are often already dealing with certain ailments, the dental office, dentist, and staff believe that patients' experience in the office itself should be as pleasant as possible. Rodriguez states, "We are a dental office that aims to break the stereotype that visits to the dentist are scary and unpleasant. Everything, from our relaxing environment to the treatment of our staff, is designed with the goal of making every patient feel welcome, and to help them relax during their appointments. Our goal is to ensure that every patient leaves our facility with a shiny smile on their faces, showing their satisfaction with our services."

Some of their patient reviews highlight these aspects, such as Tommy Han, who says, "The very first moment I stepped foot in this office, I thought to myself that this is one of the cleanest and nicest dentist offices I have visited. The staff was so friendly and down to earth. They?d make you feel like you?ve known them for a long time, instead of it being the first meeting. Doctor Kar is very knowledgeable in his field. He?s also calm. When you see a calm dentist, you become calm as well. That?s always a plus."

InStyle Dental's services and patient care are facets of their practice that they have poured significant effort into developing over the course of their history. In the 15 years since they launched their services, they have grown into one of the most renowned dental care centers in the area. To ensure that their patients receive the best care, InStyle relies on cutting edge equipment and techniques utilized by an expert team, whose members all share the same patient-driven passion.

The services provided by InStyle Dental include General Dentistry, Pediatric Dentistry, Periodontics, Cosmetic Dentistry, Orthodontics Dentistry including traditional Braces and Invisalign. Representatives of the office encourage the community to visit their facility for proper dental care, stating that they are known for being affordable and accessible.

Furthermore, InStyle Dental also invites those interested in learning more about their general or cosmetic dentistry services to contact Carolina Rodriguez to follow up on any inquiries. Patients may also visit their website, which features a complete list of their services along with a thorough description of what each procedure encompasses.
