

Inteltecis Celebrates Seven Years In Business

April 10, 2017

April 10, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Fullerton-based Inteltecis offers leading managed security service for businesses in the United States and the United Kingdom. The company solves technology and CyberSecurity issues efficiently.

Fullerton CA: Inteltecis and Frans Trisnadi are pleased to announce that they have been providing top-tier services to clients since the launch of the firm in 2010. The team of friendly and talented IT professionals are able to solve technology and CyberSecurity issues of all types and complexity. Many businesses depend on the firm for complete IT service and support. The service packages deliver the exact level of support needed, without overstepping the budget boundaries. The company helps with everything from cloud services to data backup.

Many businesses depend on Inteltecis for complete IT services and support, as well as cyber security. There are several reasons why the company is a good choice for businesses that want to enhance security and stay current with industry regulations. Industry-proven methodology which uses a proprietary 427-point checklist to secure every network. Solutions which are long-term are offered and Inteltecis is a one-stop shop for all aspects of the IT infrastructure.

The services provided by the technology experts include proactive approach and the right tools to get the job done. White glove service has been delivering the best possible IT support experience for more than five years. The company uses managed security service plans to monitor and react to issues before they become emergencies. The proactive approach helps avoid breakdowns, smooth business operations and minimize costs.

The team at Intelecis guarantees to respond to critical issues within sixty minutes or less during regular business hours. The company manages all IT services of a company for a flat-rate fee, while keep the company's data safe. Better optimization of servers saves money. Cloud computing solutions are fully scalable and available. Clients can rely on the experts for all IT services and support. The services include data backup and recovery. When something goes wrong with the internet, phones, printers or other IT services Intelecis is dedicated to resolving the problem.

For more information about them, visit <http://www.intelecis.com/>.

###

For more information about Intelecis, contact the company here: IntelecisFrans Trisnadi(949) 266-2000 web@intelecis.com 1038 E. Bastanchury Rd #620, Fullerton CA 92835

Intelecis

Website: <http://www.intelecis.com/>

Email: web@intelecis.com

Phone: (949) 266-2000

Powered by PressAdvantage.com