April 11, 2017

April 11, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Las Vegas website offers 50% off CSI The Experience tickets to locals and visitors. Online purchase for shows up to sixty days in the future is available.

Las Vegas NV: HalfPriceShows.com and Richard Reed, Owner, are pleased to announce 50% off CSI The Experience tickets held daily at the MGM Grand Casino. The two-hour event begins at 4pm daily. For visitors to the Las Vegas area, there are many events ranging from shows, tours, attractions, other entertainment and foods. 50% off CSI tickets allows those looking for a range of LV activities to purchase online up to sixty days before the event.

CSI discounts allows participants to play the role of a crime scene investigator at CSI: The Experience. As the latest recruit, guests are guided by videos featuring cast members, alongside real-life forensic scientists while examining bullet casings, matching DNA to potential suspects and identifying a single source of hair to complete the investigation process. The experience is complete with three crime scenes, fifteen forensic lab stations, fifteen suspects, three killers and dazzling special effects. This hands-on 50% off CSI experience is sure to involve guests deep into the heart of the action.

According to Richard Reed, "We are pleased to have created a website which allows you to enjoy the attractions of Las Vegas at a discounted price. The lowest price CSI tickets lead participants into the settings of the two state-of-the-art forensic crime labs and dazzling special effects. You can experience a hands-on interactive experience which thrills visitors and residents of Las Vegas daily. See if you can solve the mystery of criminal investigations."

"There is no need to sit on the couch and watch the criminal crime solving on television," he continues. "You can be part of the best interactive attraction in Las Vegas thanks to the CSI ticket discounts offered on our comprehensive website. Use our website to help in trip planning while in the Las Vegas area. The discounted prices allow you to take part in more activities for the same overall budget."
