

New Nail Salon Downtown Honolulu Celebrates Opening With Free 15 Minute Foot Massage

June 20, 2015

June 20, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

JJ Union Nails, a nail and beauty salon in Honolulu, HI, has recently opened its doors. To celebrate the launch of their new business, they are offering a free 15 minute foot massage to qualifying customers. To qualify, they must simply book on a one hour full body massage, which currently costs just $60, again as an introductory offer.

"We want to give people the chance to just escape the stresses of life for a little while", says Hong Dinh from JJ Union Nails. "Our one hour full body massage is currently on offer for just $60 to celebrate the launch of our new beauty spa, and those who book themselves on this also receive a 15 minute free foot massage that they can use themselves or give to someone else."

The nail salon is a brand new business. It actually renovated two different spaces, creating sufficient room to fit four separate pedicure spa chairs. Additionally, there are four manicure tables. It also includes a private waxing room, as well as a massage room. The renovation also made it possible to create a comfortable waiting area for customers and a separate space for workers and supplies.

JJ Union Nails is conveniently located inside the Union Plaza building, on the first floor. This is a prime location and one that many people walk past on a daily basis. They offer the opportunity for these very people to just take a break and relax for a while, having their nails or feet pampered, or even going for a full massage session.

The company offers a range of different treatment options. This includes natural nail care, nail enhancements, gel polish, various add on services, waxing and massage services. Someone could effectively receive a full body treatment, in other words.

"Life just seems to get on top of us every once in a while", adds Hong Dinh. "What we do is give people the opportunity to schedule in some much deserved 'me time'. We are open on weekdays between 9am and 6pm, and we also accept appointments for Saturday and Sunday, so anyone should be able to find a space in their busy schedule to just relax for an hour or so."

JJ Union Nails takes bookings over the telephone and in person. Furthermore, it is possible to book online by traveling to their website. When booking, customers are able to choose the treatment they are looking for, as well as any optional extras they want to include. Those who book for the full body massage at the introductory offer of just $60 will receive their voucher for the free 15 minute foot massage once they attend their appointment at the salon.
