April 21, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Bakers Kitchens Limited Kent UK recently celebrated their 20th anniversary in making kitchens and handling plumbing work at their South east London offices. The company celebrated the anniversary by show casing their major works in their two decades and a half time in the industry.

"We are ecstatic to celebrate this anniversary with our customers and partners after hitting the quarter century mark in the industry. We have come a long way, and that's why we find it necessary to show case some of our best creations in the long time we have been in this industry," Mark Baker, the company's spokesperson says.

Handmade Kitchens Kent Company celebrated their 20th anniversary after earlier on announcing they had served 25 different locations in London by January 2017. According to Mark Baker, this year's anniversary is special in that it allowed them to reflect on what they had achieved in their long service life in London. Mark notes that her company had made a huge progress in both the quality and number of bespoke kitchen services they offered to residents of London.

"We are celebrating one of our most special anniversaries; and that's why we have all out partners and friends here. It's our 25th anniversary for starters. Today is also the day when we can look back at all we have been doing, and see how much progress we have made,? Mr. Baker notes.

While speaking on this occasion, Anthony Bradley, a longtime associate with the company said that the anniversary gave them a chance to motivate their employees and thank everyone who had contributed to the company?s success. Bradley also says that the anniversary brought everyone at the company together so that they could share all their best moments while working together.

?Being such an important today, I feel that the anniversary has brought everyone at the company together. Today, I can joyfully give of my experiences building furniture to small flats and to high-end homes. It is also a day to motivate our employees and listen to their stories of making bespoke kitchens kent,? Bradley notes.

The company started hands made Kent when they barely had experience in designing beautiful kitchens. However, they note that their partnership with other designers and carpenters worked well to build this company to the place it is today. Mr. Baker now looks forward to increasing her company?s reach in other parts of London.
