MINNEAPOLIS, MN - February 19, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Key Guys, based in Minneapolis, Minnesota, have announced with pride that they have already received more than 400 reviews on Google with an overall rating of 4.9 over 5 stars. They point out that this means most of the reviews are five star reviews. They are a 24/7 locksmith service for car keys of all makes and models, including transponders, remotes, keys, key fobs, and batteries. With their car key replacement service, people don?t need to have their vehicle towed because the auto locksmiths will come to them. Car owners can experience a number of problems with their car keys that will prevent them from using the keys to drive their car. These include those instances when the car key is broken, when the care key gets stuck in the ignition, or when the care owner has accidentally locked the keys inside.

Bryan Nystrom, CEO of The Key Guys, says, ?If you have any issue concerning your car keys or you and your car are stranded somewhere, simply call for our 24/7 locksmith service. With our mobile car locksmith service, you don?t have to have your car towed. Our expert locksmiths will go to your location and get your problem solved.?

The company specializes in car keys, helping car owners in the Twin Cities of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, Minnesota. Their locksmiths have many years of experience and they have gained a lot of experience serving auto dealerships, car rental agencies, service stations, and private drivers. This broad range of customers that they have served has provided them with more than sufficient experience and the expertise and knowledge that they need in serving the needs of car owners, for practically all makes and models.

With the turning of the key in the ignition a large number of times, the key may eventually become warped or twisted. The key could get warped in such a way that it gets stuck in the ignition. Or the car refuses to start when the key is turned in the ignition, or after turning off the engine, the car owner cannot get the key out of the ignition. The experts from The Key Guys have the experience and knowledge on how to get the key unstuck, and if the key is damaged beyond repair, they can have new car keys made.

And for owners of more modern cars, they don?t have to worry because the expert locksmiths from The Key Guys, are updated on the latest technology on how to duplicate car keys for virtually all models and make of both domestic and foreign cars. With their wide experience, they have gained enough knowledge about the car keys they have serviced for several auto dealerships in the Twin Cities.

One of the customers who gave the car locksmith service a five star rating is Heather B. She said, ?We needed a second key made for our car. I called Bryan at the key guys and he was able to come out the next day to our house to make a key for us. Saved us time going to the dealer and he was much less expensive than what the dealership quoted me. He was prompt and friendly. I would definitely recommend him.?

Another customer who recently gave The Key Guys a five star review is Cintia J. She said, ?I had lost my vehicle key in my house somewhere for 5 days. I reached out to this company and they responded right away. We set an appointment and the technician was here before I knew it. They came straight to my house which was great, saved me a tow fee. No hidden fees. You know exactly what your going to pay. Would highly recommend this company.?

Those who have a car key problem, including lost car keys, may want to visit The Key Guys website or contact them on the telephone or via email. They are open 24 hours, everyday of the week.
