June 16, 2017 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pizza Fusion, a business in Doonan, Queensland, Australia, is proud to announce that they have been voted one of the best pizzas on the Sunshine Coast. They are the only wood fired pizza mobile catering business in the area, serving Noosa to Caloundra. As a mobile catering unit, the company mainly serves events, parties, and weddings. They offer authentic Italian inspired wood fired pizzas, hand made on the spot. Known for providing the best wood fired pizza Sunshine Coast residents can have, the company has been very busy.

Alan Goven from Pizza Fusion says: "If you are looking for something different for your next private function or corporate event, wedding reception, engagement party, staff party, 21st birthday, and other similar events, our Italian inspired wood fired pizza will make your event a huge hit. We are so proud to have been voted one of the best, which is a true testament to our commitment to quality."

Pizza Fusion is the only mobile wood fired pizza company in the area, which instantly attracted many customers. However, pizzas are popular the world over and people have very high demands in terms of taste and quality. As such, the fact that the company not only continues to exist but to thrive and grow as well, demonstrates just how good their product is. This is clearly reflected in the many positive reviews that the company has received.

"Thank you Allan and Aleta for catering our wedding," says one customer on Pizza Fusion's website. "The Pizza was amazing and the guests couldn't get enough of it. We highly recommend Pizza Fusion, their pizzas were incredible and their setup was very professional and restaurant like. Very smooth service and extremely friendly staff."

When it comes to wedding catering Sunshine Coast residents have come to realize that Pizza Fusion is the company to go to. Alan Goven adds: "We believe that your wedding, your engagement, your party, your function - is special. You spent a long time thinking about it and a lot of energy making plans, organising & imagining just what it will be like on that day. So we think it's important that the catering we provide would be just as special."
