Your Jamaican Tour Guide is a popular tour operator in Montego Bay, Jamaica, that strives to raise the profile of authentic Jamaica to the world. That is the reason why they have released new information about tours that focus not just on the standard tourist attractions, but also customized, off the beaten track locations as points of interest. Many people have already joined these Jamaica points of interest tours and have been very happy with their experiences.

Alrick Allen, owner and founder of Your Jamaican Tour Guide, says: "Jamaica is such a beautiful island, but too many people who visit either stay in their resort the whole time, or just go to the most common tourist attractions only. The truth is, there is just so much more to see, and I take great pride in taking my guests to visit those locations. I try to add a personal touch, enabling people to socialize with real local Jamaicans to let them see how we really live."

The company specializes in creating fully customized tours. They ask their guests to tell them what their dream vacation looks like, and aim to create just that. Whether it is cooking with Rastafarians, swimming under a waterfall, visiting local communities, shopping at local food markets, or having a drink of rum at a local bar, Your Jamaican Tour Guide strives to do all that can be done to make it possible. Alrick is passionate about his home and this can be seen in everything that he does.

This attitude truly shines through in the reviews that customers have left on the company website. For instance, one family from Cleveland, OH, says on the tour operator's website: "A huge thank you for showing us around Negril. Someone asked me what my favorite part was about the trip ... and it was hanging out with you and your friends."

There are many Jamaica points of interest to visit. Some of them are popular with tourists, but no less beautiful for it. What Your Jamaican Tour Guide aims to do, however, is make those visits special and unique. Alrick adds: "I want people to fall in love with Jamaica and keep her in their hearts forever."
