September 14, 2020 -

Pensacola, FL - Avalon Landing?RV Park in Pensacola, FL?is thrilled to announce the launch of a new consumer platform produced by the trusted RV site Good Sam. The company will be launching a new all-inclusive online platform titled RV.com. The online platform will be supported by the RV magazine. Good Sam is currently the world?s largest RV membership organization, supporting RV adventurers for over 50 years.

The new platform will offer content for RV owners, which will cover exclusively manufactured products, campground reviews, top destinations, delicious recipes, top products, and money-saving advice. The new platform arrives as the RV industry is presently driven by product innovation and solutions; these issues will be highlighted on the platform along with safety tips for the outdoors.?

The platform is seeking to have the content inspired by RV enthusiasts who are open to sharing their stories and experiences as they travel throughout the nation. The content will empower the reader to live their RV experience to the fullest by providing technical advice, road reviews, and health and wellness tips while on the road. Good Sam also recently announced that they will be discontinuing both??Trailer Life??and??MotorHome??magazine to focus solely on the new platform, RV.com. Both publications will come to an end with the December 2020 issue.?

Avalon Landing RV Park is excited about this new platform as it can become a trusted source for their beloved campers for their RV information and needs. As a site offering?RV parking in Pensacola, FL,?the campground sees campers from across the nation and understands how important an online community such as this can be for RV lovers. Avalon Landing RV Park is a trusted member of the Good Sam community and is proud of the platform the company has created for RV enthusiasts.
