September 29, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Oxnard, Calif. ? Express Employment Professionals is a beloved job agency in Oxnard, CA, who joined other staffing agencies around the nation by proudly celebrating National Staffing Employee Week from September 14th thru 20th.

According to the American Staffing Association, about 3 million temporary and contract workers are employed by staffing companies in America during any given week. Furthermore, Seventy-three percent of temporary and contract employees will work full-time. Six out of 10 staffing agency workers reported they worked in the industry to fill an unemployed gap or help them obtain a permanent position.

?For those who are looking for work in this unique time or for a better job, a staffing company like Express Employment Professionals is a great place to start,? said Neil McMillan, owner of the Oxnard Express office. ?At Express, we never charge a fee for job seekers and have connections to local businesses that you wouldn?t otherwise find searching online job boards. We are proud to offer hope through employment by connecting good people with reputable companies to help get America to work again.?

?Whether you are looking for a temporary assignment or a long-term career change, our recruiters are ready to help find you that perfect fit,? said Bill Stoller, Express CEO and chairman of the board. ?Every year, Express employs hundreds of thousands of employees and we are honored to be a part of their employment journey.?

The Oxnard Express franchise began operation in 2007 and is proud to serve Ventura County. The Oxnard location is a Circle of Excellence achiever along with the winner for Best of Staffing Client list in 2012. Express offers a variety of positions for qualified candidates, along with business staffing solutions in Oxnard, CA.
