For Rip Toned Fitness, a company in Las Vegas, NV, the ultimate goal is to help everybody around the world enjoy better exercise and health. To achieve this, they have developed a number of products, all of which have been very well received by independent experts in the country. While most of their products focus on facilitating fitness exercises, they also have a number of products that enable people to make a statement. They have now announced that the popular Rip Toned beanie is now also available in Canada.

"Working out is not just something you do, it is a way of life," says Rip Toned Fitness' Mark Pasay. "We have developed a number of Rip Toned products that enable people to demonstrate their commitment to this way of life, including mugs, t-shirts, and beanies. We're very happy to announce that the beanie is now also available in Canada."

The beanie is suitable for men and women alike. It is available in black and features the Rip Toned brand on a tag on the side of the beanie. It is perfect for those who go out jogging during cold days, including people who simply want to show the world that they are committed to their workout. In the U.S., the beanie has proven to be very popular and it is expected that it will be equally well-received in Canada.

Mark Pasay adds: "Rip Toned Black Beanie is supersoft and hugs the head just right. It's one size fits most and stretches nicely without losing its form. Its slightly ribbed knit cuff provides good warmth on a cold day and protects the scalp from the harmful effects of sunlight. Excellent protection is provided for all types of weather conditions. This premium quality beanie is made of 100% acrylic wool, stretchable and non-itchy. Fully functional, the cuff can be rolled up to give the ears a warmer wrap or completely pulled down for a more snugly fit. You can instantly revamp your outdoor style. It's fashionable design is perfect for everyday use. Looks great for both Men and Women. Durable, machine washable and a practical piece of headgear."

Those interested in Canada can take a look at the beanie at the Rip Toned page on Amazon.ca.
