Pensacola, Fla. ? Award Masters in Pensacola is pleased to contribute to programs in the community, such as Gulf Coast Kid?s House. Each year the local awards store gives dozens of name tags to the Gulf Coast Kid?s House. Staff members and volunteers wear name badges at events so the people they are serving can identify them. Award Masters Inc. has donated the much-needed name tags to the Gulf Coast Kid's House for over a decade.

The Gulf Coast Kid?s House is a not-for-profit children?s advocacy center that serves children of abuse throughout the Escambia County Florida area. The center works diligently to provide intervention resources, professionals, investigation, and prosecution on child abuse cases across the county. Gulf Coast Kid?s House works to minimize trauma by helping form a collaborative response to child abuse cases, including family counseling services within the center. The center is dedicated to helping kids who need it the most.

The employees and volunteers of the Gulf Coast Kid?s House can be seen at events all over the county, providing prevention education, seeking supporters, running campaigns, and accepting donations. The nametags provide by Award Masters helps the organization run events effectively and provides a personal touch to those in difficult situations. The name tags are large plastic name tags beautifully engraved with blue lettering and white background.

Award Masters Inc. has been a part of the Pensacola community for over 25 years by providing quality service and a variety of products including plaques,?corporate awards,?and promotional products.
