Female Divorce Lawyer Encourages Clients To Select Attorneys By Proficiency

February 10, 2021

EAGAN, MN - February 10, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -
The Eagan, Minnesota based Amundson Law Office, led by a female divorce lawyer who specializes in family law, is reaching out to share why it is important to hire an attorney based on their track record and capabilities. In pursuit of this, the firm recently published an article on their website which explores the benefits a client stands to gain from working with a reputable and experienced professional.

Lisa Amundson, the firm?s lead attorney, states, "Going through a divorce is not easy, no matter what others may tell you. The very prospect of divorce creates an array of daunting questions and emotions. You will be busy for a very long time as you will have to look over several aspects of your life, making decisions that will affect your finances, asset division and even child custody. In such situations, many are swiftly overwhelmed by the task. This is why we recommend that they turn to a trusted attorney who can offer their support and guidance.?

Amundson explains that there are several criteria to follow when choosing an attorney, though many tend to choose who they feel most comfortable with. Often, both the husband and wife prefer to be represented by women attorneys. The women may do so for perceived gender comfort while the males will sometimes prefer to have a woman on their side. While this is understandable, she states that the real question clients should consider is the attorney's ability to both listen to their situation and then effectively represent them. Notably, these are the standards that the Amundson Law Office embraces in every aspect of their own work.

She adds, "At our firm, we focus all of our efforts on offering our clients the best, most complete representation that they can get. We are experienced and effective divorce lawyers who can help you understand how the law applies to your unique situation. We will work with you to develop a plan that addresses your priorities and needs. From your initial consultation through to finalizing the divorce, we will work to preserve your best interests at every step of the way."

The Amundson Law Office takes a careful and methodical approach towards each of the cases they take on. These all begin with a free consultation, where the firm reviews the client's case and offers professional advice on how to move forward based on their unique circumstances and requirements. This gives clients the opportunity to ask questions and evaluate whether the law firm is a good fit for them. Clients who decide to move forward and hire the Amundson Law Office are promised a thorough explanation of what to expect in terms of process, timeline and how much they may have to invest in legal fees.

Once they reach a decision and the firm begins working on the case, all of the legal team? efforts will be centered on achieving the best results possible. They focus on achieving results and moving the case forward, which can prove to be invaluable in high asset divorce cases where the client will want to resolve the emotionally-charged situation as soon as possible while protecting themselves. Clients may also expect to have the team ready to answer any and all inquiries in the event they feel as if they do not have a complete grasp of their standing (or the case?s progress). This has the added benefit of ensuring that the client is always ready to make an informed decision at every stage of the process.

Amundson states, "We focus on being by your side every step of the way. Any questions you have, we encourage you to direct towards our team as it is important to us that you are always fully informed of every detail you may need to proceed with your case. It is critical for you to be aware of where you are in the process and what is happening next."

The Amundson Law Office offers top-notch representation in the Eagan area for the following practice areas: Child Custody, Child Support, Spousal Support, Modifications to Support, Custody and Parenting Time and Domestic Abuse/OFP/HO. Clients may find their offices in Eagan, Bloomington, Minneapolis and Saint Paul.
