Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer is offering car accident lawyer services in Riverside, California and surrounding areas. Attorney Alexander D. Napolin, Esq., who heads the firm, wants people to know that if they have been hurt in an accident, they need to consult with an accident injury lawyer. They should not just listen to the advice of the insurance adjuster, who is not actually on their side but on the side of the insurance firm, and will seek to minimize the payment. In contrast, Attorney Napolin has developed a strategy when prosecuting accident injury claims that has provided successful results for his clients.

Attorney Napolin also wants accident victims to know that choosing a law firm with a reputation of success in accident injury cases is vital. However, the success of a case will not be determined by a firm?s success on previous cases and years of existence. There are other important factors, such as whether the case has been correctly evaluated and has been prosecuted in a timely manner. That is why Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer Riverside has always focused on the client and not on how much they were able to collect for others.

Alexander D. Napolin explains, ?Since opening our doors in 2011, I have developed into a well-rounded California accident injury lawsuit law firm. My reputation as quality Riverside personal injury lawyer is not measured solely by the amount of money collected for my clients before you. Instead, it is best measured by the success stories that my clients experience when I apply my unique philosophy and method to their case.?

He advises accident victims to consult with an accident injury lawyer as early as possible to ensure that they won?t lose their legal right to receive compensation. And that includes other personal injury cases and not just those involving an accident. As a way of helping accident victims, who are likely to be under a lot of stress, the firm offers a free case evaluation for those who call the firm on the phone. And when they accept a case, it will be on a contingency fee basis, meaning the legal fees to be charged will be a percentage of the recovery. This means that there would be no cash out for the client, who is likely to be having financial issues, especially if the injury prevents him or her from going back to work immediately.

Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer Riverside can provide legal assistance in different kinds of cases, such as: animal attacks; motor vehicle accidents, whether car, motorcycle, boat, etc.; dog bites; collisions; head injuries; pedestrian accidents; wrongful death; traumatic brain injury; pain and suffering; train wreck; spinal injury; nursing home abuse; litigation; mediation; slip and fall; trial; lawsuit; arbitration; severe burns; loss of limb; whiplash; medical malpractice; botched surgery; amputation; assault; battery; products liability claims; and toxic exposure.

Meanwhile, the practice areas of Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer Riverside include accident injuries, bankruptcy law, car accidents, employment law, medical malpractice, torts and injuries, personal injury, product liability, workers? compensation law, and more. The firm is ready to provide legal advice to people who have been hurt because of an accident or injury. When someone has been negligent and this resulted in a person getting injured, the victim has the legal right to pursue a personal injury claim with the assistance of an experienced lawyer. According to California state law, the severity of the injury will not affect such legal right to seek compensation to help cover the damages incurred resulting from an accident.

People who have been injured, and those who have a loved one who has been injured, need to seek the assistance of a knowledgeable and experienced personal injury lawyer to pursue a claim. A good lawyer will immediately work to asses the case to make sure that the accident victim?s legal rights under California state law are protected.

Those who require the services of a Riverside car accident lawyer may want to check out the Napolin Accident Injury Lawyer Riverside website, or contact them on the phone or through email. They are open from Monday to Friday, from 8:00 am to 6:00 pm.
