

Express Employment Professionals? Drive Thru Job Fair is a Great Success

September 29, 2015

September 29, 2015 -

Express Employment Professionals is proud to announce that their Drive Thru Job Fair on August 29, 2015 was a great success. As part of their efforts to increase the number of applicants to hire for their major employers, Express Employment Professionals launched a job fair to find new talents for their clients. Many people came and participated in the event that was held at the company?s Birmingham (North) office.

Express, a Birmingham AL Employment Agencies, sees the job fair as a way to discover new Express associates and contribute to the growth of the local economy. The company was able to help many job seekers land a job and major employers fill dozens of vacant positions in their organization. The job fair also gave an opportunity for many people to work in the local community and help boost economic growth.

As a Birmingham Staffing Company that treats associates, employers, and job seekers with equal respect, Express Employment Professionals has one goal; to make everyone feel special and valued for the work they do with the company. Express wants to establish a working relationship with everyone, and values the success and business of their clients.

Daniel Morgan, owner of Express Employment Professionals, stated his appreciation for those who attended the event.

?We really appreciate the Birmingham community showing their support and attending our job fair. Our clients are providing high quality jobs to our associates, and our associates are looking for companies that are willing to invest their career. We are privileged for the opportunity to help change people's lives with the diverse employment options we are able to provide,? says Daniel.
