MoldStar Remediation, one of Atlanta?s most trusted names in mold remediation, mold cleanup, and water extraction, has published a new post on their website via the resources tab. The post titled ?Toxic Mold and Rental Properties: What Rights Do Tenants Have in Georgia?? aims to arm tenants experiencing mold-related health issues with the knowledge needed to remedy their living situations.

Having experienced his own bout with mold toxicity, owner Jeremy Shelton has made it his mission to educate and assist those suffering from mold exposure. Mr. Shelton has more than a decade of experience in indoor air quality and has become one of Atlanta?s most trusted names in the industry. Shelton holds multiple certifications including certifications from the IICRC in Water Damage Restoration and Applied Microbial Remediation as well as being a Certified Microbial Consultant through the American Council for Accredited Certification.

When asked for a comment Shelton had this to say, ?After I purchased a house with a crawlspace infested with toxic mold it took me nearly two years and countless trips to specialists and doctors to get to the bottom of what was causing me to be so ill. Since then, I?ve made it my mission to not only help those in metro Atlanta but to provide as much information as possible via our website. If you have any questions reach out regardless of where you live.?

Homeowners located within Atlanta, Sandy Springs, Roswell, Marietta, and other surrounding Metro Atlanta areas suffering from toxic mold exposure are invited to speak with the MoldStar Remediation team to schedule a free consultation.

Real Estate Agents, Plumbers, Home Inspectors, and other local service businesses or licensed tradesmen or tradeswomen are invited to reach out to the MoldStar team to be featured on the resources page.
