

O'Neill's Chevrolet Buick Now Offers Lifted Trucks In Connecticut

March 21, 2018

March 21, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

O'Neill's Chevrolet Buick, a truck dealer in CT, is proud to carry customized lifted pickup trucks for the consumer who is looking for a truck that is anything but ordinary. Many of the customized trucks in stock have lift kits installed, along with custom rims and tires, as well as custom paint jobs and both interior and exterior trim pieces. These things set it apart from other trucks available on the market.

Sean Sullivan, President and General Manager of O'Neill's Chevrolet Buick, says: "Hartford County Connecticut really is Chevrolet Truck Country. While it's true that the Silverado trucks are one of, if not our most popular selling vehicle, it is great to have a number of these customized trucks in our inventory for people looking to make a statement. And boy do these trucks make a statement. They are perfect for just about any situation, from a graduation present to a daily driver. We make sure they're not only built for offroad use but make sure they're comfortable as well. Our inventory of Rocky Ridge and Tuscan customized Silverados is constantly changing."

As one of the only dealerships offering lifted trucks in CT, O'Neill's Chevrolet Buick has set itself apart and is standing out from the competition. The Chevrolet Silverado 1500 truck is proving to be particularly popular in their collection of custom trucks, both for 2017 and 2018 models. Meanwhile, other trucks from different makes and models are also available and a representative from O'Neill's is more than happy to discuss possibilities with interested clients.

The truck dealer stocks both used and pre-owned trucks, both in standard models and custom made ones. They also offer services and parts. Furthermore, the company prides itself on having various flexible finance arrangements available so that nobody has to go without the truck of their dreams.

People are encouraged to view the collection of trucks on the website of the Hartford Connecticut area truck dealer, or to visit the showroom to see the vehicles for themselves. A test drive can be arranged on site. New vehicles are added to the inventory on a regular basis, so people should check back frequently.
