July 02, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Fantastic Trades Global have today released their iPhone 6 protective cover. While Father's Day has been and gone, this product is marketed specifically for women to purchase for their clumsy husbands. At just $12.99, it seems to be a very worthy investment. The product is listed on http://www.amazon.com/iPhone-4-7-Case-Protective-Investment/dp/B00RPUS9GA/ref=sr_1_1?ie=UTF8&am p;qid=1433545816&sr=8-1&keywords=B00RPUS9GA It is hoped that more people will be able to protect their expensive phones this way.

"The iPhone 6 is one of the most expensive phones on the market today, and it has only been on the market for a short period of time", says Angelo Ally from Fantastic Trades Global. "Yet most of us know not just someone who has this phone, but who has dropped it and broken the screen as well. We have developed a screen protector to help prevent this."

Husbands often have things on their mind. They have to drive to work, pick up a few things on the way home, meet their friends and more. At the same time, they always want to be reachable in case there is some sort of emergency or interesting event. Because of this, no matter where they are, they are always rushed. And when people are rushed, they become clumsy. Most iPhones break because they are accidentally pushed off a desk, table or counter, or because they fall out of a pocket.

Many people have tried various screen protectors, but very few of them truly work. Yet everybody understands just how vital their phone is to them, and not just because it costs a lot of money. At the same time, however, it has also been discovered that the iPhone 6 is actually more prone to damage than any other iPhone so far. This really highlights how important it is to properly protect it.

The Fantastic Trades Global case protector is highly popular and for good reason. It covers 100% of the phone, including the front and the back and the screen. This means that if - or when - the phone drops, it will be fully protected. And at an affordable price, this really is the perfect gift for the clumsy husband. "Not only was I able to get an iPhone 6 case at a great price, but I was also impressed with the superb customer service", says one happy customer. "Amazon has the incredible follow up system ensuring that I received my product. They also provided a list of FAQs which answered all of my major questions."

Anyone who is tired of having to fork out hundreds of dollars to replace their iPhone 6 screen on a regular basis should give this particular phone cover a try.
