Riverside, California ? A company that puts a lot of focus on safety when handling tree maintenance procedures, Tree Service Experts Riverside has helped a homeowner trim a tree standing in an overly risky position. The company finished a tree trimming procedure for a tree standing between powerlines and the homeowner?s house.

?The procedure was complicated,? said the company?s chief of field operations after completing the procedure, ?But we were able to use our experience and modern tree service gear to complete it without harming the neighboring utilities. We tied the branches with ropes before cutting them to keep them from falling unexpectedly. After cutting each branch, we lowered it down slowly with the ropes directing it carefully to avoid touching any of the nearby utilities.?

Speaking after working with Tree Service Experts Riverside, the homeowner had the following to say, ?For the past 4 years, I have worked with several companies that always promised maximum safety when handling trimming on this tree. Funny enough, all the previous companies would end up making some mistake that put some damage on my home. Tree Service Experts Riverside is the first company that has completed the tree trimming procedure without damaging my home. I am truly thankful and will hire the company again.?
