Pensacola, Fla. ? Award Masters, a provider of custom awards in Pensacola, was recently given the privilege of creating a personalized plaque for the Cat Pak Coach of the Week. The individual who was presented with this title is Jeannie Alderman Beasley, a dance coach at Labelle Performing Arts. She was nominated by a woman named Holly, whose kids take dance lessons at Labelle Performing Arts.

The Cat Pak Coach of the Week title is meant to honor the hard work and good character of coaches in Cat Country who have positively influenced the children they coach. The winners of this title are chosen through nomination, usually by the athletes themselves. On the Cat Country 98.7 website, there is a nomination form that anyone can fill out to nominate the Cat Country coach they love: https://catcountry987.com/the-cat-pak/coach-of-the-week/.

?Miss Jeannie wears every hat possible. She?s a dance coach, mom, second mom to all 50 of our team kids, wedding planner for her daughter?s wedding and much more. She never slows down,? says Cat Country

98.7, quoting Holly. ?You more than likely will never see her without this huge smile on her face. I wouldn?t want my kids to dance anywhere else. The life lessons, discipline and teamwork is more than I could ask for. But lastly she puts God first!?

Award Masters is happy to create a personalized plaque for Miss Jeannie. They believe it is important for child athletes to have coaches who care, not only about the child?s athletic success but also about the child?s character and well-being. Award Masters is pleased to support this style of coaching by helping reward a coach who embodies it.

Award Masters has been creating custom awards, personalized plaques and trophies, promotional products, and corporate gifts for the Pensacola community since 1981.
