"By hosting this webinar, we hope to provide some valuable information to a possible victim of medical malpractice. Victims of medical malpractice need medical attention for injuries that they would not have if an error had not occurred. When a patient's wellbeing is jeopardized, their job and financial stability could also be put at risk," explained the firm's managing attorney, Gabriel A. DiLeonardo, Sr., Esq.

In addition to medical malpractice, the personal injury lawyers in Union City have represented many different types of injury cases over the years, such as workplace accidents, auto accidents, slip, trips and falls, and more.

From their Union City law office, the team of injury lawyers also serve the surrounding areas such as Weehawken, New Dunham, West New York, Guttenberg, Secaucus, The Heights, Hoboken, Bergenwood, Fairview, North Bergen, Woodcliff, Racetrack Section, Cliffside Park, Ridgefield, Grantwood, Edgewater.
