June 04, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

God's Motivations is an online community and store that aims to spread daily motivations and gospel. They achieve this through their active social media community and by sharing books on the gospels through their store. They have announced that they have focused the content of their website on the upcoming Father's Day event, providing their followers with an opportunity to express their gratitude towards their dad.

A representative from Gods Motivations says: "Father's Day is such a wonderful celebration. It is one where we can show our gratitude and love for our dad. If you are still considering what to purchase for your father this coming Father's Day, then consider giving one of the books in our Christian bookstore to inspire him with the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Through God's Motivations, people can access a wealth of wonderful things to help them live their lives according to the Gospel. These include the daily motivations app, and also the Christian Collection Store. The representative explains: "Christian Bookstore is a wonderful Father's Day gift, because you can get a more uplifting message from it and share with the entire family too. It means you can share prayers every day, both between members of your family and the wider community. The gift of prayer is nothing short of miraculous."

Besides apps, an online community, and daily motivations, God's Motivations also offers a range of important books and publications to help people feel closer to God. Many people have found solace in this community and have shared their experiences and life improvements with others. Pearl, for instance, says on the God's Motivations website: "We are beginning a journey to give solid alternatives to cultural views of love, ways to prepare the hearts of those looking for real love, and even the young who are just forming their expectations. God does allow suffering, but oh how the beauty blooms in the after."

Those who are looking for more guidance and motivation to live their lives according to the Gospel, and who wish to celebrate Father's Day, are encouraged to visit the God's Motivations website for further information. They are welcomed to join the community and to share in the love of the Lord.
