?Our local Parkville medical malpractice attorneys will be hosting an upcoming webinar on January 4, 2022 at 6pm. We will be focusing this webinar on filing malpractice lawsuits against medical professionals. Medical negligence can cause serious injury to a victim who is eeking medical care to get better. Unfortunately, if the standard of care is not provided, and an injury or existing condition worsens, the doctor acted negligently. We will be taking time to review medical malpractice lawsuits as well as answering any questions attendees may have,? shared managing personal injury lawyer, Aaron Blank, Esq. when asked what to expect in the upcoming webinar.

Those who are interested in getting legal help can call their 24/7 helpline at (410) 769-0609 or find their local law office at 9403 Harford Road #1A, Parkville, MD 21234.

The zoom webinar will be available for individuals from the local office?s service areas like Carney, Parkville, Towson, Woodcroft, Hampton, Yorktown, Overlea, Loch Raven, Idlewood, Cedarcroft, Perry Hall, Raspeburg, Hamilton, Ashlar Hill, and Perring Loch. Blank Esq. went on to add, ?Space is limited as we like to engage with everyone who joins. Our team is working on hosting more webinars in the future so stay tuned for updates about those. We?ll make sure everyone gets a chance to get a spot in our webinars.?
