

WhiteSands NFT Collaboration Provides Financial Assistance for Patient in Need of Addiction Treatment

April 27, 2022

Plant City, Florida - April 27, 2022 -
Plant City, FL - A recent collaboration between WhiteSands Alcohol and Drug Rehab and the NFT project Bored Mummy Waking Up is helping people in need of addiction treatment receive care they would not otherwise be able to afford.

With the release of its most recent NFT, Bored Mummy Waking Up wanted to donate a portion of its proceeds to altruistic causes. They partnered with WhiteSands to create a cryptocurrency-backed financial assistance fund through the sale of non-fungible tokens (NFTs). NFTs are essentially unique digital art files that are stored on the Ethereum blockchain. NFTs can be sold, traded, or simply treasured as a piece of original art.

In addition to providing financial assistance for treatment, the partnership aims to amplify the conversation around mental health and substance use disorders to a wider audience. They hope to educate the public about effective treatment options and remove the stigma around reaching out for help by raising awareness.

So far the fund has been able to help seven people access treatment at WhiteSands. Aspects of their stories will be familiar to anyone who has struggled with substance abuse. Most recently, a father who feared losing his family due to his addiction was able to attend treatment thanks to the financial assistance fund.

WhiteSands has been ranked the number one addiction treatment center in Florida by Newsweek magazine the last two years in a row. Newsweek?s annual nationwide rankings are based on a survey of healthcare professionals asked to evaluate facilities based on the quality of care, follow-up care, accommodations, and amenities. In addition to this professional recognition, WhiteSands has received hundreds of five-star reviews from former clients thanking them for helping to transform their lives.

The financial assistance fund created through the partnership between WhiteSands and Bored Mummy Waking Up will continue to help as many people as possible access quality addiction care. WhiteSands would like to thank Bored Mummy Waking up for their generous contribution that has made this endeavor possible.
