California, April 2022: Assured Standard releases an online guide and analysis on pickup truck insurance. The article, published on Assured Standard?s website, was produced by the company?s insurance experts. The guide was released to aid anyone looking to get insurance for their pickup truck by providing reliable information on all the important aspects of pickup truck insurance.

For companies or individuals owning pickup trucks in the United States, investing in pickup truck insurance is vital. The trucking industry in the U.S. is valued at $791.7 billion, according to Statista, with over 947,000 truck drivers employed. To protect all parties involved in an accident, it's essential to invest in pickup truck insurance. Truckers need to understand pickup truck insurance policies and providers before purchasing insurance. This guide was designed to provide trucking companies and owners with detailed information on pickup truck insurance.

According to Assured Standard, their experts conducted thorough market research to compile the guide. The publication aimed to shed light on the importance of trucking insurance by highlighting the common issues with pickup trucks that necessitate insurance coverage. The guide explained factors that affect pickup truck insurance premiums and how to choose the right provider so that readers can have a clear understanding of pickup truck insurance. Readers can find the full guide by visiting their page: https://www.assuredstandard.com/pickup-truck/.

Since the company's launch, Assured Standard has provided online resources and detailed research, reviews, analyses, and guides to inform readers about all the tools and knowledge needed to make the right insurance choices for their business. The guide was published as part of their regular research on commercial truck insurance solutions.

?Pickup truck owners must have auto insurance coverage to protect themselves from potential collisions and any damage they may sustain during an accident. Through this guide, we hope to simplify pickup truck insurance for truckers and trucking companies,? said Arthur Williamson, Chairman, and CEO of Assured Standard. He believes businesses need to fully understand all the insurance options available to pick the right policy according to their requirements.

In its effort to help people with their insurance queries and provide resources and tools for discovering the best commercial truck insurance plans, Assured Standard offers advice, aid, and practical tips on trucking and business insurance. In addition, the insurance advisor discusses the different types of commercial trucking insurance and business insurance, such as general liability, worker's compensation, physical damage coverage, and different types of truck insurance.

?Before you choose a B2B policy, it's important to have access to all the options so you can weigh the pros and cons of each. Our team provides trucking companies and businesses with a free consultation so they can get the best coverage for future accidents,? said Williamson.
